Civil Air Regulations Amendment 26-5

Effective: May 1, 1949

Adopted: April 28, 1949

PERSONNEL LICENSING STANDARDS

On April 2, 1949, there was published a notice of proposed rule making (14 F.R. 1545) indicating our intention to implement those portions of the Personnel Licensing Standards adopted by the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) deemed suitable for domestic aviation.

The following amendments to Part 26 are those deemed necessary for such implementation. These amendments provide that an applicant for an air-traffic control-tower operator certificate with junior rating shall, in addition to meeting the other qualifications of current Part 26, successfully accomplish an examination with respect to the characteristics of local air traffic and with respect to pertinent data regarding meteorological reports available within a circular area of a radius of 125 miles measured from the airport from which the rating is sought. The current requirements for such a certificate do not specifically require an applicant to have such knowledge. However, an individual is not considered thoroughly qualified to exercise the privileges of such a certificate without such knowledge, and under the present requirements the examination has included material on these subjects. Accordingly, the specific inclusion of these two subjects in the list of required subjects on which the examination is to be based does not constitute an important substantive change but does, however, cause the amended requirements to conform more nearly to the knowledge requirements established by ICAO. It is believed that practically all current holders of an air-traffic control-tower operator certificate can meet the requirements set forth in this amendment.

However, it will be noted that while the provisions of the Convention on International Civil Aviation will permit the holder of an air-traffic control-tower operator certificate issued prior to May 1, 1949, to exercise the privileges as currently authorized until May 1, 1953, such certificate need not, after that date, be recognized by foreign States. Thus, it will be necessary for current holders of air-traffic control-tower operator certificates to obtain new certificates issued under the amended provisions of this part.

Moreover, in view of the fact that the new knowledge requirements are substantially the same as the current requirements, it is not believed that such holders will have any difficulty in obtaining new certificates.

It is anticipated that the Administrator will, in due time, issue instructions with regard to the exchange of such certificates.

These amendments shall be effective May 1, 1949. It will be noted that Annex 1 will become effective on May 1, 1949, and that the United States is obliged by the terms of the Convention on International Civil Aviation to bring its regulations into compliance with Annex 1, in so far as it has not filed notice of differences thereto, by that date. In the notice of proposed rule making referred to above it was indicated that these amendments would be made effective on May 1, 1949; thus the public was fully advised of the intended effective date.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented. For the reason above stated, the Board finds that good cause exists for making these amendments effective on less than 30 days' notice.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 26 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR, Part 26, as amended) effective May 1, 1949, as follows:

1. By amending § 26.2) (a) to read as follows:

(a) Local airport rules and characteristics of local air traffic of the airport for which the rating is sought;

2. By amending § 26.2C (c) to read as follows:

(c) Teletype symbols and weather sequences of the airways converging on the airport and other pertinent data regarding meteorological reports available within a circular area of a radius of 125 miles measured from the airport for which the rating is sought.
